INDEX

LIBRARY JOURNAL, Vol 49, JAN.-DEC., 1924.

Business libraries and other libraries specially well-known, are entered under their own names, as are national, state, university, college, and U. S. departmental libraries. Other libraries are entered under name of city or town in which they are located. Appointments and resignations are indexed on p. 1012-1014.

Intelligent Service and Fair Dealing

The publishers, supply dealers, manufacturers and book binders who advertise in the LIBRARY JOURNAL are accustomed to dealing with libraries and are therefore familiar with library requirements. (We have purposely discouraged the placing of announcements that have no relation to the professional work of the librarian.)

We are sure that librarians will secure intelligent service and fair dealing from these firms. It is our endeavor to make of the advertising section of the LIBRARY JOURNAL a well-rounded and reliable directory to which the library buyer may turn with complete confidence. It will be highly appreciated if in responding to advertising announcements you will kindly mention the LIBRARY JOURNAL.
